CORE COMPETENCIES

All levels of government are being challenged by budgetary issues, regulatory compliance, huge concern over data security, and not to mention older generations. Nonetheless, the government has the responsibility to provide quality services to its constituents with comprehensive and secured technology solutions. Syntenex Corporation has consistently and continuously provided the highest level of Information Technology and Security-related services to governmental and commercial entities. Our decades of experience make firms like AVMED, Advanced Endocrine Care, Inc., the Government of Panama, and Unique Medical trust us with their IT security needs.
